

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Joe L. Floyd, of Sioux Falls, was appointed to the initial State Board of Directors for Educational Television in 1965, and served continuously for 23 years; and,

WHEREAS, Joe was instrumental in helping establish the present-day statewide public television and radio networks through his public service on the board and the generosity of his private business; and,

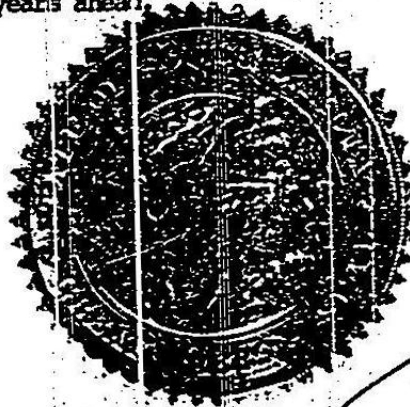

WHEREAS, The exemplary relationship between commercial and noncommercial broadcasting in South Dakota is due in large measure to the efforts of Joe; and,

WHEREAS, His wise counsel will be missed by the ETB Board:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby recognize the invaluable contributions of Joe to the development of public television and radio in South Dakota and proclaim April 22, 1988, as in South Dakota, and I join in expressing thanks to Joe for his many years of unequalled service to the people of this state and wish him the very best in the years ahead.

JOE L. FLOYD DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Eighth Day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

George S. Mickelson
GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR
